

Introduction:

Pharmacology is the academic field studying the interactions between drugs/medicines and living organisms. In our lab., we consider certain "genes" as possible candidates for "novel therapeutic targets", and are trying to clarify the pathophysiological relationship between the genes and organisms' phenotype. These efforts deepen translational research.

Members:

Center - Norihito SHINTANI, Ph.D.

Molecular Neuropharmacology

Left - Keiko IWATA, Ph.D.

Neuropharmacology, Neurochemistry

Right - Masafumi NOGUCHI, Ph.D.

Cell & Developmental Biology

We all love science, especially neuronal & mitochondrial science !